On October 24, 2026, at approximately 0821 hours, I, Officer Clarke #292, was dispatched to [redacted] in reference to a white male exposing his sexual organs.

Upon arrival, I met with the victims, [redacted] who each provided sworn statements.

[redacted] stated that at approximately 0819 hours, [redacted] from the store and observed a white male standing in the doorway of [redacted] completely nude and masturbating. The male, known to her as her defendant Justin N. Samson, was later positively identified through the Driver and Vehicle Information Database (DAVID). [redacted] began recording the incident on her cellphone. She stated that Justin directed his attention toward her while actively masturbating but did not make any verbal statements. [redacted] then went inside to get [redacted] to witness the incident. [redacted] advised she wished to pursue charges.

[redacted] stated that when she stepped outside, she observed Justin exit the front door of [redacted] fully nude and actively masturbating. She then observed [redacted] recording the incident.

While interviewing both victims, Justin opened the front door to his residence fully nude. I announced myself as a police officer and advised him I needed to obtain a statement. Justin looked around in confusion and then closed the door without speaking. As I continued interviewing the victims, Justin repeatedly looked out from behind his blinds but did not return to the door.

Officer Burkett #243 arrived on scene to assist. Officer Burkett and I made multiple loud announcements identifying ourselves as police officers; however, Justin refused to come to the door.

Based on the victims' sworn statements, my observations, and the totality of the circumstances, there is probable cause to charge Justin N. Samson with Exposure of Sexual Organs, in violation of Florida State Statute 800.03.
